TRAVEL INFORMATION

SCHEDULE & FARES: Schedules and fares are subject to change. Fuel & port surcharges may apply. Groups: Reduced fares may be available for 15 or more people traveling together, if booked in advance.

CANCELLATION POLICY: All reservations are subject to cancellation policies. Please refer to your confirmation for your cancellation policy or contact our reservations office. There is no refund on unused portions of a package. We strongly recommend purchasing travel insurance at www.ClipperVacations.com.

PARKING: Clipper Navigation, Inc. does not manage parking facilities or take responsibility for vehicles or contents. Limited long-term paid parking is available near the terminals.

PASSENGER CONDUCT: Clipper Navigation, Inc. reserves the right to refuse passage to any person in the interests of the safety and comfort of our passengers, and reserves the right to refuse service of alcoholic beverages to any person.

CLIPPER'S RESPONSIBILITY: Transportation of passengers and baggage is provided by Clipper Navigation, Inc. and is governed by the "Terms and Conditions" available at Clipper terminals.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: Travel insurance is available at www.ClipperVacations.com (click on the Access America Travel Protection Products button). Ask any Clipper reservation agent for information.

IF TRAVELING BETWEEN U.S. & CANADA: U.S. regulations on restricted items are available in literature on board the vessel or at Clipper Terminals.

CANADA CUSTOMS: Prohibited and Restricted Weapons: All automatic weapons, handguns, mace and pepper spray. Items mentioned are not all inclusive. Please contact Canada Customs for further information, and for information on importation of regulated firearms.

IMMIGRATION: Identification is necessary for Customs and Border Protection. Due to heightened security at the United States/Canadian border crossing, all travelers must present a Passport, Passport Card or Enhanced Driver's License (EDL) at all sea and land borders. See www.ClipperVacations.com for more details and information including requirements for children. Currently EDLs are available in many states, including Washington. Check with your local DOL for more information or visit our website.

Children traveling without both parents must have written authorization from the other parent or proof of custody. If you are not a United States or Canadian born citizen you will be required to have a passport and possibly a visa.

DRINKING & DRIVING: Persons with a felony may be denied entrance into Canada. Canadian law defines Driving While Intoxicated or Driving Under the Influence as a felony.

The San Juan Islands are located in the U.S. and do not require a passport for travel from Seattle.

SAN JUAN ISLANDS WITH STOP IN FRIDAY HARBOR via VICTORIA CLIPPER III

A Fully Narrated Scenic Cruise from Seattle

Board the Victoria Clipper III, the only whale watching vessel departing directly from downtown Seattle, in the morning at Pier 69 and head out of Elliott Bay going north through Puget Sound. Enjoy Washington's scenic coastline as you cruise past Whidbey Island, Saratoga Passage, Deception Pass and the Rosario Strait. Enter the San Juan Archipelago and wind your way through breathtaking channels and islands. With a trained onboard naturalist as your guide, you will be on the lookout for the sealife and wildlife that call this region home.

Explore Friday Harbor

Ranked #10 on Travel + Leisure Magazine's 2014 World's Best Awards: Top Islands in the Continental U.S. & Canada, the San Juan Islands provide the perfect escape. As the premier town of the San Juan Islands, Friday Harbor offers a diverse selection of things to do for everyone from families to outdoor enthusiasts to foodies. Explore the island's serene, natural beauty by bird watching, hiking, biking, kayaking and more. Delve into the island's rich historical past at the American and English Camp National Parks or soak up local culture and check out the many galleries, open-air markets and wonderful restaurants around town.

CLIPPER'S WHALE & SEALIFE SEARCH

This 2.5-hour tour is our own, so we can offer it at an excellent value. Compare to similar tours at twice the price!

The San Juan Islands are world-renowned for both resident and migratory pods of orca whales. The Islands are also teeming with minke and humpback whales as well as Dall's porpoise, seals, otters, blacktail deer and over 100 pairs of bald eagles.

- During the whale and sealife search, your naturalist will point out and educate you about wildlife, identify individual whales whenever possible and help you understand the behaviors of this amazing species.

- After 2.5 spectacular hours, the boat docks back in Friday Harbor. Spend 2.5 hours exploring San Juan Island before returning to Seattle, or spend the night and continue your adventure the following day!

- Whale sightings guaranteed!

About the Victoria Clipper III

Features:

- Three viewing decks
- 360° deck
- Over 200' of rail space
- The only whale watching vessel departing downtown Seattle

As a member of the Pacific Whale Watch Association of the Northwest, we have great respect and admiration for these magnificent animals and are committed to maintaining compliance with established whale watching guidelines.

*Whale sightings guaranteed: If you do not see whales during the Whale & Sealife Search, you will receive a coupon for a complimentary trip.

ADD-ON ACTIVITIES

SAN JUAN ISLAND SEA KAYAKING ADVENTURE

For those just cruising to San Juan Island for the day, kayaking is another great option for island exploration. Paddle through the sparkling waters of the Haro Strait and enjoy expansive views of the Olympic and Cascade Mountains, giant kelp forests and the opportunity to catch sight of resident orca whale pods and other wildlife. 3-hour and 5-hour tours available. $95-$115 per person (seasonal).

WHALE MUSEUM

Open since 1979, The Whale Museum offers a one-of-a-kind experience to learn about the whales of the Pacific Northwest. Discover the natural history of marine mammals, with a special focus on the orcas of J, K and L Pods in the Salish Sea, in the Gallery of Whales. You will also have the opportunity to check out a fascinating collection of exhibits, a map of whale sightings, artwork, models, artifacts, real whale skeletons and a family tree of Resident orcas.

San Juan Islands TOURS FROM SEATTLE TO SAN JUAN ISLANDS

The 100-million-year-old San Juan Islands feature some of the most spectacular scenery in the Pacific Northwest. This archipelago of more than 400 islands includes: Lopez, San Juan, Shaw and Orcas - the fourth largest and most popular. The area is world-renowned for both resident and migrating orca pods that feed in the area and is also teeming with other wildlife and sealife. Combine these features with terrific inns and resorts and it is easy to why the islands are such a popular retreat.
